Authorization:

I hereby grant permission to Quincy College to print and publish my submitted writing / art/ photographic piece(s) in the Quincy College Literary Journal as well as future publications, marketing materials, or on the Quincy College website at no cost to the College. I accept editing changes that may be made to enhance my work. Also, I understand that this authorization form does not guarantee publication in the Quincy College Literary Journal.

Guidelines:

I understand that submissions are kept confidential.

I understand some submissions may not be accepted into the Journal. All written works should be submitted on a virus free 3.5 DD HD disk compatible with Microsoft Word 2000. Artwork can be submitted as a Photoshop Tiff or EPS 300 dpi file or arrangements can be made for scanning. Each submitted document should be kept to five (5) pages or less. I am aware that my submission will be kept for up to a year after the indigo 2007 event, after which I can pick up my submission. _____

I understand Quincy College is nondiscriminatory; and all submissions from all Quincy College students will receive fair and unbiased evaluation.

I understand distribution of the Quincy College Literary Journal will be solely on Campus and not mailed to me. I accept responsibility of picking up the Journal at one of the established sites on Campus.

I promise I have not plagiarized in any shape or form and understand such an illegal act will not be tolerated.

I understand and promise I will abide by the above guidelines.
